Porter County Republicans— The Eagle Eye

Volume 4, Issue 5

May 2021

Chairman's Comments

Fellow Republicans —

As we watch what is going on in our country it truly amazes me how the folks on the left, led by the press and Oligarchs of FaceBook, Google and Twitter continue to run over our freedoms and personal liberties.

These folks have no sense of the Constitution or the Bill of Rights. They trample any kind of conservative thought or conversation. Even conversation or thought that most of us would consider moderate is deemed offensive and derided. They seem hell-bent on turning this exceptional country into another Cuba or Venezuela.

We must counter this narrative at every level. We must engage all voters, friends, neighbors, family members even strangers on the street. We must express our commitment to individual liberties, free speech, fiscal responsibility, limited government and government that is responsible and answers to the voters. Indiana is a beacon for the rest of the country on what high quality Republican leadership can do — fiscally sound, fiscally responsible and a government that works to limit regulations.

I know some of you will disagree, especially with what's occurred over the last 13 months because of the pandemic, but I do remind you that all you need do is look to our north and west and realize, though imperfect and at times frustrating, we are leaps and bounds ahead of those folks in every way. Rhetoric is easy, governing is hard.

Engaging more people and sharing our message of individual liberties, freedom and limited government will help us to be successful. Together we can elect those leaders who build consensus and create the best policies and legislation possible. Elected Officials who understand the rule of law and that our form of government is rooted in the Constitution of the United States.

We need to continue adding people to our team. Though we all have varying opinions and positions, in the end we're all on the same team striving for truly effective, efficient limited government that practices fiscal conservatism, fiscal restraint and understands that individual liberties are what give us our freedom. This is how Indiana and Porter County operate. To a frightening contrary, what we're seeing out of Washington, DC and the current administration is a complete lack of fiscal responsibility and understanding of individualism.

Finally, I want to thank all of you once again for the support you've shown the leadership team and for all you do for our party. I look forward to the successes created by the excellent leadership we have elected. I pray for an end to this pandemic and the future of the United States of America!

WASHINGTON, D.C.—President Joe Biden was seen wearing a mask in a climate summit with world leaders, despite his being vaccinated and despite the conference being virtual and held over Zoom. This has made some wonder if Biden even understands how a virus works, but Biden says he’s just being cautious.

“We can’t let our guard down just because we’re vaccinated and alone in a room,” Biden told reporters with a megaphone while standing twenty feet away. “See, there is this little thing called a ‘computer virus.’ Ha, I bet you thought I was some out-of-touch boomer who doesn’t know about computers. Well, for one thing, I’m too old to be a boomer – I’m the generation before that – and I’ve used typewriters since I was a kid – which is a lot like a computer before you attach the TV. So I know all about computers, and they get viruses. Maybe COVID. Who knows? Better to wear a mask around them.”

Doctor Fauci agreed with Biden’s assessment. “We haven’t done any studies about coronaviruses becoming computer viruses and computer viruses transferring to humans,” Fauci said, “so we can’t rule that out. I would stay away from computers as much as possible, and if you are around a computer, put a mask over the part where the fan vents. And as I keep saying, if at all possible, please just lock yourself in a large footlocker in your basement, as that’s the safest way to ride out this pandemic.”

Others aren’t convinced and have made fun of Biden for his seemingly pointless mask-wearing with nicknames such as “Dumb Biden,” “Stupid Biden,” and “Biden – Not a Smart Man.” Still, Biden persists with his extra caution and was last seen wearing a mask alone in the bathroom while fixing his hair. “Mirror Joe Biden could have COVID, for all I know,” he explained.

Carter Says He's Finally Hopeful That He Won't Be Worst Presidential Failure In His Lifetime

May 12th, 2021 - BabylonBee.com

PLAINS, GA—In a rare interview with the media from his tiny dollhouse living room, former president Jimmy Carter expressed hope that he will no longer be considered the worst presidential failure in his lifetime.

"I've been seen as one of the worst modern presidents for a long time," said Carter, "but something tells me my luck is about to change. I'm not sure what it is, really, but the last few months or so have me thinking that I'll no longer be considered in last place -- and that's a great feeling."

Carter didn't name names or say why he feels this way, only that "it feels good to finally be in second-to-last place."

Some have suggested Biden may now be considered the worst president due to unspeakable damage his policies have done to the economy, the Middle East, and people's hopes for the future.

Others have suggested Trump should be considered the worst president ever due to the fact that he's literally Hitler and his skin is orange.

In honor of Jimmy Carter's accomplishment, local Democrat leaders will be throwing him a "not last place" party.

Congrats, President Carter!

The Babylon Bee

CHICAGO, IL—Mayor Lori Lightfoot has announced new rules for the Chicago Police Department, declaring that officers must ask for a suspect's consent before arresting him or her.

While the city had previously announced that police officers would have to ask for permission from headquarters before chasing criminals, Lightfoot said that initiative didn't go far enough to address inequality in police work. Permission, she says, really should be sought from the criminal rather than the police station when putting anyone in custody.

"Before our officers arrest any criminal, they will have to ask the criminal's permission," said Lightfoot. "To do otherwise would be to violate the criminal's rights as he beats someone up, shoots another human, or burgles homes and business."

"This is community policing at its finest, where the criminal is always right."

Police will have to get a permission slip signed by the criminal, ask them about their feelings, and inform them that they have the right to leave at any time for any reason at all. Should the criminal decide they would like to continue committing crimes instead of being arrested, the police officer will be forced to apologize and pay reparations for offending the victim.
