Chairman's Comments

Fellow Republicans –

October is here and time is truly flying by. I'm sure you've taken notice that the Circus is in full swing in Washington, DC. How we live and how our everyday lives are impacted by elections relate to our local municipal elections. Please make sure you are engaged in your local elections and make sure your family, friends and neighbors are as well.

Our Republican candidates for local office have exceptional goals and aspirations for all our communities. They are all committed to effective, efficient, quality and fiscally responsible government.

The ideals of self-governance, limited regulation, smaller government, living free of government overreach, and limited taxation are cornerstones of our Party and all our wonderful candidates. We need to continue the effort to keep our Cities and Towns a place to raise our families in safety, comfort and free from government interference. A place where opportunities exist for economic expansion, wage growth and job opportunities for everyone.

REMINDERS:

October 7— Registration closes for new voters. Until then, register on-line. Just tap here to register with the Secretary of State, Connie Lawson:

October 8 — Early Voting opens at sites in Valpo, Portage Chesterton and Hebron. Tap here for further information:

Vote Absentee — find out how to vote from the comfort of your home — no crowds, no lines, no hassles. Tap here to download the absentee vote by mail request form, mail it in, get your ballot and vote for your favorite Republican:

No straight ticket voting — For the City Council at Large Candidates, you must vote for each individually! Voting straight ticket will NOT mark your ballot for the At Large Candidates, you must mark those individually.

November 5th — ELECTION DAY!

Thank you for being a part of our party and God Bless All of You.

Republican Matt Murphy Candidate for Mayor — City of Valparaiso

*"As Mayor I will continue to work to bring in high-paying jobs to Valparaiso."
- Matt Murphy while touring Task Force Tips*

Matt Murphy is a lifelong Valparaiso resident and longtime community leader, so focused on his community that he announced his desire to be mayor in 2017. He grew up on Franklin Street in the Central Neighborhood, delivering The Vidette Messenger as his first job.

He is a graduate of Indiana University and went on to earn an MBA from Valparaiso University. "I became interested in serving my community early on. I've always been proud to be a Valpo resident and wanted to do what I could to make the city the best it could be," says Murphy.

Murphy joined the City of Valparaiso's leadership team in 2007, serving as Economic Development Director alongside Mayor Jon Costas. "I was proud to be a part of the revitalization of the downtown, the creation of Central Park Plaza, and bringing both jobs and businesses like Pratt Industries to our community," says Murphy. He has also served as a member of the Porter County Council, as Vice President of the Valparaiso Economic Development Corporation, and on the Valpo Schools Foundation.

Murphy and his wife, Polly, live on the city's north side, raising four children, ranging from pre-school to high-school. The family attends Immanuel Lutheran Church. Polly is a nurse .

While he has more than a decade of leadership experience alongside the Costas administration, Murphy continues to look outside the box for ways to advance Valparaiso. Last year when he saw a home on Indiana Street burned out and vacant, he sought an opportunity to improve a neighborhood. After talking with the mayor of Whiting, which has seen much success in neighborhood revitalization, Murphy led an effort which resulted in the Redevelopment Commission's purchase of the home to be redeveloped by long-time Valparaiso builder. The home, currently under construction, has already been purchased by a newly-retired couple. "By taking the initiative to redevelop one property, we hope to spur development throughout the College Hill neighborhood and broaden that success

"I represent a combination of the city's current, well-earned success, along with a forward-thinking family man interested in serving the entire city. I want to provide a great place for my kids to grow up and succeed and I want my folks to enjoy the community they've helped to build from the old Central neighborhood days. I want the best for Valpo," says Murphy. "I've served Valparaiso for years. I've run a local, small business. I'm raising a family in my hometown. That's who I am." Murphy attributes much of the city's success to partnerships and collaborations like the kinds he fosters. "I want to work with residents, businesses, nonprofit organizations, churches, and others. That's the Valpo way," says Murphy.

City of Valparaiso

Holly Taylor for Clerk/Treasurer

"Holly is proud to be a part of the vibrant and visionary team of the city. She has worked hard to learn every aspect of the Clerk-Treasurer's office. It will be a smooth transition for this vital job. Being entrusted with the taxpayer's money is an important public trust, and I know Holly is deserving of that trust. As your Clerk-Treasurer, Holly will ensure that Valparaiso remains one of the most fiscally responsible cities in Indiana," says 36-year Clerk-Treasurer Sharon Swihart.

Deborah Lee for Clerk/Treasurer of Portage

General Election — November 5, 2019

Deborah Lee

Candidate for Clerk/Treasurer City of Portage

I feel that my past experience makes me the best candidate for the position of Clerk Treasurer.

The issues I am concerned with are:

1. Open communication with all departments within the city.
2. Proper financial reporting.
3. Researching services that the city is outsourcing to determine feasibility.
4. Insuring that the city not lose any government funding because of negligence.

My name is Deborah Lee. I am currently a candidate for the office of Clerk Treasurer for the city of Portage. I am a lifelong resident of Portage. My father, Arthur Kaminski, was a successful Certified Public Accountant in Portage for many years and my mother, Mary Kaminski, proudly worked at the Anderson Company (ANCO) for 45 years. My parents taught me a strong work ethic, commitment and fierce loyalty.

I chose to follow in my fathers footsteps and pursue a higher education in accounting. I received my Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Indiana University Northwest and for the last 29 years I have worked in the field of public accounting. Working in this field includes preparing financial statements for various businesses, preparing budgets and reconciling bank accounts. It is also my job to insure that all government filings and taxes due are completed timely.

I understand the importance of deadlines as well as money management which are crucial to running a successful business. I am in contact with my clients at all times to discuss any financial decisions that may impact the success of their business.

The Clerk Treasurer has the ultimate responsibility of insuring that bills get paid, payroll gets processed timely, receivables are recorded properly and all government funding be accounted for. My accounting experience supports all of these functions.
